RG104 E-1 Box 148

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

26 July, 1887.

Sir;

The remains of an alleged twenty dollar gold piece enclosed in your letter of June 24 th ult. proves to have been brass, and of no value: Consequently it is not in my power to make any returns for it.

Respectfully

Dan'l M. Fox

Superintendent &c

M. J. H. Wooten

P.M. Leon

Kansas

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 148

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
July 26, 1887

Sir;

The remains of an alleged twenty dollar gold piece enclosed in your letter of June 24th ulto. proved to have been brass, and of no value. Consequently it is not in my power to make any returns for it.

Respectfully,
Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent

Mr. S.H. Wooten
P.M. Leon
Kansas